LIST KSIĘDZA PROBOSZCZA

Drodzy Parafianie i Przyjaciele,

Dzisiaj, Ewangelia zaprasza nas do refleksji nad naśladowaniem Chrystusa. Czy ważne jest, aby naśladować Go tak, jak On tego oczekuje. Jakub i Jan jeszcze nie przyjęli nowiny o miłości i przebaczeniu: «Panie, czy chcesz, a powiemy, żeby ogień spadł z nieba i zniszczył ich?» (Łk 9,54). Inni powołani także nie pozbyli się więzów rodzinnych. Aby iść za Jezusem Chrystusem i wypełniać naszą misję, trzeba to czynić w wolności od wszelkich przywiązań. Z okazji Światowych Dni Misji Św. Jan Paweł II wezwał katolików do bycia misjonarzami Ewangelii Chrystusa przez dialog i przebaczenie. Hasłem było wtedy zawołanie: «Misją jest głoszenie przebaczenia». Papież powiedział, że tylko miłość Boga jest zdolna uczynić braćmi ludzi wszystkich ras i kultur, zlikwidować bolesne podziały, kontrasty ideologiczne, nierówności ekonomiczne i przemoc, które wciąż tak bardzo dręczą ludzkość. Dzięki ewangelizacji wierzący pomagają ludziom rozpoznać w sobie braci.

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Today, the Gospel invites us to ponder over our following Christ. It does matter to follow him as He expects us to. James and John had not yet learned his message of love and forgiveness: “Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?” (Lk 9:54). There were others also called by the Lord but they were not yet ready to completely part with their family bonds. To follow Christ and accomplish our mission, we must do it free from any tie.

At a World Missionary Journey, Saint John Paul II made an appeal to all Catholics to become missionaries of the Gospel of Christ through dialogue and forgiveness. The motto was: “The mission is an announcement of forgiveness.” He said that only our love for God can unite men of every race and culture, by making disappear the painful divisions, the ideological contrasts, the economic inequalities and the violent abuse humans are still subject to. Through evangelization, we believers may help men to recognize one another as brothers.

CALLED BY GOD

We return to Ordinary Time this Sunday, and with this new season we focus on what it means to be a person who is called by God for some definite purpose. Elisha recognized God’s call in Elijah’s greeting and prepared immediately to follow. The people who came to Jesus seemed ready to follow, yet each had reasons to linger behind. As people who are given the freedom to follow or to stay behind, we must ask ourselves what we are ready to do for the sake of Christ and the call of the gospel. What are you called to do at this time in your life? Are you prepared to leave behind the things that get in the way of living as a Christian?

FOLLOW

What does it mean to follow Jesus? The Gospels show us that Jesus called each person individually, recognizing the things that stood in the way for each. He looked into the person’s heart and saw the true desires of the person standing before him. Each of us experiences Christ’s call uniquely as the persons we are. For some, following requires us to take stock of our lives and let go of the obstacles that keep us from the way of true discipleship. For others, the call may lead us to deepen the way that faith directs our lives, with more intentional time in prayer, regular participation in Mass, renewed attention to family, involvement in our parish, or new acts of service.

BE READY

It is easy to say we want to follow Jesus, yet most of us feel competing desires that stand in the way of discipleship. We may be distracted by the constant swirl of activity so prevalent in our surrounding culture; we might be lured by worldly wealth and the status that often accompanies it; we may simply be comfortable with the way things are and find it difficult to risk changing anything. In today’s Gospel, Jesus makes it clear that we must stop putting off making the changes that will bring us closer to him and to God’s way of life. We must trust in the Lord, knowing that what he most deeply desires is that we be close to him. If you encountered Jesus today and said you were ready to follow him, what would he see in your heart, what obstacles or hesitations would he perceive? Go to Jesus in prayer this day. Listen to him say, “Follow me.” Prayerfully place your life in the Lord’s hands and be ready to follow.
