LIST KSIĘDZA PROBOSZCZA

Drodzy Parafianie i Przyjaciele,

W tych dniach szczególnie modłę się za wszystkich naszych ojców. Dzień Ojca przypomina nam wszystkim naszego własnego tatę jak również Boga Ojca w niebie. Zatem zaczęcam do świętowania i do modlitwy za naszych ojców. Składam im najlepsze życzenia, zdrowia, miłości, dobrej pracy i pieniędzy oraz takiej mocy z nieba aby być zawsze dobrym ojcem. Dobry ojciec jest fundamentem dla każdej rodziny i każdego domu. George Herbert napisał tak: „Jeden dobry ojciec znaczy więcej niż stu nauczycieli”. Został nam jeszcze nasz ojciec chrzestny. To taki drugi ojciec w naszym życiu i trzeba mu być wdzięcznym za dar obecności w życiu w wierze. Dziękuję wszystkim ojcom za ciężką pracę i poczucie bezpieczeństwa w rodzinie. Niech Bóg Wam wszystkim błogosławi a zmarłym ojcom da życie w niebie.

Wasz Proboszcz, Ks. Piotr

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

These days I especially pray for all fathers. Father's Day remind us all of our own dads as well as our God Father in heaven. So, I encourage you to celebrate and pray for our fathers. I wish them all the best: health, love, satisfaction from job and such power from heaven to be always a good father. The good father is the foundation for every family and every home. George Herbert wrote: „One good father means more than a hundred teachers”. Let's not forget our godfathers. They are second fathers in our lives and we must be grateful to them for the gift of presence in our life and in faith. Thank you to all fathers for their hard work and a sense of security in the family. May god bless you all and may god give deceased fathers life in heaven.

Fr. Piotr Rozek, Your Pastor

THEN TAKING THE FIVE LOAVES
AND THE TWO FISH,
AND LOOKING UP TO HEAVEN,
HE SAID THE BLESSING OVER THEM,
BROKE THEM,
AND GAVE THEM TO THE DISCIPLES
TO SET BEFORE THE CROWD. LUKE 9:16

THE ABUNDANCE OF GOD'S LOVE

The crowd that followed Jesus to the deserted place was fed, body and spirit. Jesus wanted them to know that in his presence they would find care and compassion. He would not let them go hungry. Like Abram who encountered God in the bread and wine offered by Melchizedek, they experienced first-hand the abundance of God's love. These sacred meals prefigured the meal most profound, the supper shared by Jesus and his disciples on the night before he died, the feast in which we share in the Eucharist. Today we celebrate the solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. On this day, we appreciate anew the great love of Jesus Christ for us and for the world and experience first-hand the presence of Christ in the sacred meal.

TAKEN, BLESSED, BROKEN, SHARED

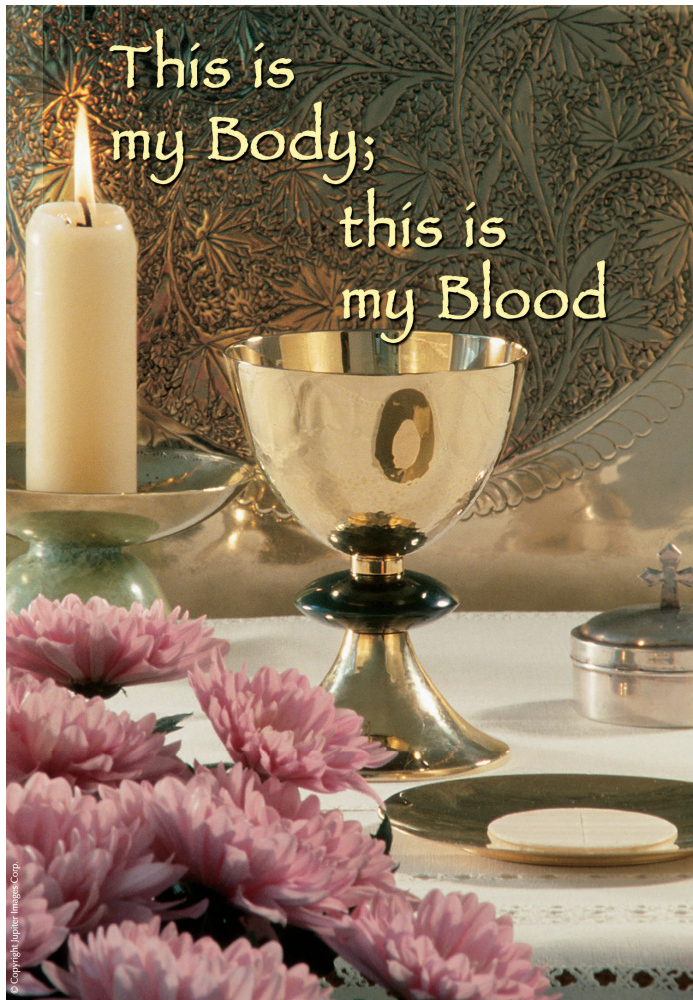

We do it so often, we could take it for granted. Yet, the mystery of the Eucharist, our participation in, reception of, and being sent to live as Christ's Body and Blood is a gift beyond measure. In the desert with the crowd and on the night of the Last Supper, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, said a prayer of blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to those who hungered for physical and spiritual nourishment. Scripture scholars and theologians often remind us that we are to repeat Jesus' actions of taking, blessing, breaking, and giving—with our lives, resources, and gifts—so that others may know the love of Christ. As Eucharistic people, we are meant to be changed, to become more like the One whom we receive.

GIVE THEM SOME FOOD YOURSELVES

Notice that Jesus sent his disciples to give the crowd the food they needed. Jesus could have done this alone. We could say he didn't need the disciples to participate in the feeding of the great crowd. But Jesus did not act alone then, and Christ relies on us now, to feed those who hunger and thirst physically, spiritually, and emotionally. When we grow weary and want nothing more than to satisfy our selfish and self-centered impulses, it is good for us to remember who we are and whose we are. It is crucial that we hear in the depths of our hearts, "Give them some food yourselves," and be ready to do so. On this solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, let us celebrate Christ's living presence with and for us and recognize our call to share that presence with others.
