LIST KSIĘDZA PROBOSZCZA

Drodzy Parafianie i Przyjaciele,

Kochać innych przez uczynki, oto są owe wyżyny, to właśnie tam objawia się miłość. Nie przejść obojętnie! Być dobrym samarytaninem oznacza zmianę planów, poświęcenie czasu. To prowadzi nas także do rozważania postawy właściciela gospody. Św. Jan Paweł II powiedział: «Cóż by bez niego uczynił? Tak naprawdę to anonimowy gospodarz wykonał większą część roboty. Wszyscy możemy tak postępować wypełniając własne obowiązki w duchu służby. Każde zajęcie daje bardziej lub mniej bezpośrednio możliwość pomocy tym, którzy tego potrzebują. Wierne wypełnianie codziennych zadań to już praktykowanie miłości do osób i społeczeństwa. Zostawić wszystko, aby służyć potrzebującym (dobry samarytanin) i z miłością dobrze wykonywać swoją pracę (gospodarz) są dwoma formami miłowania: «'Któryż (...) okazał się bliźnim?'. 'Ten, który mu okazał miłosierdzie'. Jezus mu rzekł: 'Idź, i ty czyń podobnie'» (Łk 10,36-37). Przychodźmy do Maryi Dziewicy, a Ona, która jest wzorem, pomoże nam odkrywać potrzeby innych, te materialne i duchowe.

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

To love our neighbor with good deeds is the highest up we can climb; it is where true love is made manifest, not just passing by on the other side: In a document, the 2nd Vatican Ecumenical Council, asserts «Christ himself raises his voice amongst the poor so as to stir up his disciples' charity». To be a good Samaritan means to change our plans, dedicating our time which allows us to contemplate the figure of the innkeeper, as His Holiness John Paul II points out: «What could the Samaritan have done without him? In fact, the innkeeper, remaining anonymous, is who takes care of the toughest part of the job. We can all act like him if we fulfill our own task with a spirit of service. Every occupation offers the more or less direct possibility to help the needy (...). To leave everything to harbor he who needs it (the good Samaritan) and to do well our job for love (the innkeeper), are the two ways for us to love our neighbor: «'Which (...) made himself neighbor' (...). 'The one who had mercy on him'. And Jesus said, 'Go then and do the same'» (Lk 10:36-37). We turn to the Virgin Mary and She—who is a living example!— will help us discovering our neighbors' material and spiritual needs. From:Evangeli.net

AND WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR?

SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 10, 2022

IN OUR HEARTS AND MINDS

Love God. Love neighbor. This is our call, the sum of all it means to live as Christ's holy people in the world. Moses told the people that the law—all that sums up this call to love God and neighbor—isn't far off, something distant and hard to reach. It is in our hearts and minds, on our lips. We have only to live what has been instilled in us through the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, the fullness of God's love that dwells in us through Christ. We who are baptized into Christ's life rely on this presence as we extend ourselves in service as did the Samaritan who saw the need of the injured traveler and stopped everything to give comfort, care, and mercy. Such love of neighbor is an outpouring and sign of the love of Christ.

LOVE GOD

What does it mean to love God with all our heart, being, strength, and mind? We turn our hearts to God in prayer, quiet moments of reflection, and participation in the Mass and sacraments. Our whole being may turn to the Lord in trust in the midst of troubled times or when we need courage. We find strength to live as Christ's people, even when faced with the questions, doubts, and derision of others. We may turn to the Lord with our mind as we prayerfully read sacred scripture and learn more fully the teaching of the Church. All of these things point to a singular desire to know God deeply. The love we have for God is, after all, a reflection of the great love God has for each of us.

LOVE NEIGHBOR

Jesus' parable of the Good Samaritan points to the impact our love of God is to have in our lives. The priest and Levite were more concerned with observing the letter of the law rather than living its essence. The Samaritan found himself unable to pass by without coming to the traveler's aid. Who are the travelers whom we meet? What is our response? Are we so filled with the love of God that we cannot ignore the suffering of hunger or homelessness, the needs of the lonely and sick? Loving God necessitates loving our neighbor. We cannot have one without the other. Jesus shows us that the love we are to share is selfless, sacrificial. The Samaritan not only cared for the traveler's wounds, but took him to find shelter and paid for his care. He went the extra mile on the journey of faith. Who is your neighbor today? How will you love him or her?
