Today, as Lent has begun, the Liturgy of the Word invites us to contemplate the mystery of the Lord's Transfiguration: "Jesus (...) led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them" (Mt 17:1-2), an experience they would never forget (cf., for example, 2 Pt 1:16-19). That Christ transforms our lives is something that, in one way or another, all of us can testify to. So often the Lord gives us life by turning small gestures of our ordinary existence into extraordinary events.

So many times, our prayers and petitions become reality and surprise us, like the radiant presence of Jesus, who today leaves Peter, James, and John astonished. For Jesus is the revelation of the Father's love within us. And then we can make Simon Peter's words our own: "Lord, it is good that we are here" (Mt 17:4).

But immediately afterward, the Father invites us to take on an attitude that is often difficult for us to put into practice: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to Him" (Mt 17:5). On several occasions, Pope Leo XIV has reflected that "Christ transforms life and calls us to listen to Him." This is the key to the Transfiguration: to listen to the Son of God. To listen to the Word... also means paying attention to our shepherds, listening to a son or daughter who is troubled, or to someone who lives in loneliness or despair, or to the sick... and, above all, listening to our heart in prayer, from where the Lord speaks to us.

"Rise, and do not be afraid" (Mt 17:7), Jesus Christ tells them at once. The Transfiguration is also a foretaste of the Resurrection. It reminds us that beyond the cross there is Glory. In moments of darkness, illness, or suffering, this scene gives us hope: the final word does not belong to pain, but to light. May this attitude of wonder, hope, and listening accompany us especially during this second week of Lent.

HELP US TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Every year through the support and commitment of individuals and organizations, we are able to serve more than 600,000 people in our Long Island community.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal enables our Church to continue to form our youth and adults in the faith, promote the dignity of life, provide quality education to our young people, feed the hungry, and foster vocations to the priesthood.

Your generosity helps to make all of this, and so much more, possible!

Thank you for your support.

The goal of participation in this program is to prepare oneself, as practicing Catholics, to receive the sacraments. Being Catholic is a lifelong endeavor and involves much more than receiving a select number of sacraments. It is a process that continues through one's life and ideally should reflect in one's daily life. Please come and join us.

We look for Volunteer Religious Catechists or Assistant Catechists in our church. Please call for more info to Director of Religious Education
