SUNDAY REFLECTIONS

SNOUTCEFFER YADNUS

"Are you envious because I am generous?"

Today, the evangelist Matthew continues to describe the Kingdom of God according to Jesus' teaching, as proclaimed during these summer Sundays in our Eucharistic assemblies.

At the heart of today's story is the vineyard, a prophetic image of the people of Israel in the Old Testament, and now of the new people of God born from the wounded side of the Lord on the cross. The matter at hand: belonging to this people, which is granted by a personal call made to each one: "It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you" (Jn 15:16) —and by the will of the Father in heaven, who desires to extend this call to everyone, in accordance with His generous will for the salvation of all people.

What stands out in this parable is the protest of the early-hour workers. They parallel the older brother in the parable of the prodigal son. They experience their work for the Kingdom of God (the work in the vineyard) as a heavy burden ("we bore the day's burden and the heat" Mt 20:12) and not as a privilege bestowed by God; they don't work out of joyful sonship, but with the grumpiness of servants.

For them, faith is something that binds and enslaves, and they quietly envy those who "live life" to the fullest, for they see Christian conscience as a restraint, not as wings that give divine flight to human life. They believe it's better to remain spiritually idle than to live in the light of God's word. They feel that salvation is their due and are jealous of it. Their petty spirit contrasts sharply with the generosity of the Father, "who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth" (1 Tim. 2:4), and thus He calls to His vineyard: "The Lord is good to all, compassionate toward all your works" (Ps 145:9). SŁOWO NA NIEDZIELE

«Czy na to złym okiem patrzysz, że ja jestem dobry?»

Dzisiaj Ewangelista kontynuuje opis Królestwa Bożego według nauki Jezusa, tak jak jest głoszona podczas tych letnich niedziel w naszych zgromadzeniach eucharystycznych.

W głębi dzisiejszej historii, winnica, proroczy obraz Izraela z Pierwszego Testamentu, a teraz nowy lud Boży, który narodził się z przebitego boku Pana na krzyżu. I kwestia: przynależność do tego ludu, która jest dana przez osobiste wezwanie każdego z nas: «Nie wyście Mnie wybrali, ale Ja was wybrałem» (J 15,16), i wołą Ojca Niebieskiego, rozszerzanie tego wezwania na wszystkich ludzi, natchnienie hojną wołą zbawienia.

W przypowieści wyróżnia się protest pracowników z pierwszych godzin. Są obrazem równoległym starszemu bratu z przypowieści o synu marnotrawnym. Ci, którzy przeżywają pracę dla Królestwa Bożego (praca w winnicy) jako duże obciążenie («którzyśmy znosili ciężar dnia i spiekoty» Mt 20,12), a nie jako przywilej, który dany jest im przez Boga; nie pracują w radości tej zależności, ale ze złym humorem sług.

Dla nich wiara jest czymś, co związuje i zniewala, w środku czują się zazdrośni o tych, którzy «cieszą się życiem», jako że traktują świadomość chrześcijańską jako hamulec, a nie jako boskie skrzydła, które nadają lotu życiu ludzkiemu. Uważają, że lepiej pozostać bezrobotnymi duchowo, niż żyć w świetle Słowa Bożego. Uważają, że należy im się zbawienie i są o nie zazdrośni. Wyraźnie kontrastuje porywczność z hojnością Ojca, «który pragnie, by wszyscy ludzie zostali zbawieni i doszli do poznania prawdy» (1 Tm 2,4), i dlatego wzywa swą winnicę: «Pan jest dobry dla wszystkich i Jego miłosierdzie ogarnia wszystkie Jego dzieła» (Ps 145,9).

Caring for Our Parish Building

In 2027, our parish building will celebrate the 60th anniversary of its construction. We are grateful to God and to everyone who contributed to building it and caring for it throughout the years.

Recently, we completed many improvements inside and outside the building. Through our cooperation with the Polish School, we were able to paint the entire floor where children attend Polish School and religious education classes. Earlier, we replaced all the lighting to provide students and teachers with better conditions for learning and working. We also renovated the interior stairs leading from the parking lot entrance. We prepared the necessary documentation and obtained permits to replace the badly deteriorated fence. Thanks to persistent work and determination, this important project was completed. We removed tall trees that posed a safety risk, replaced the entire fence, installed new exterior lighting and an irrigation system, and planted new shrubs and flowers. We then repaired the damaged asphalt, applied a protective sealcoat to the entire parking lot, and painted new parking lines. All these improvements have significantly enhanced the safety, appearance, and functionality of our parish property. This is especially important for the children and young people who use our facilities each week.

Our future plans include additional work on the stairwell, in the banquet hall, and in the gymnasium.

We look to the future with hope and trust that we will be able to complete these projects.

I sincerely thank everyone who supports our parish and helps us provide a safe and welcoming environment for all who use our parish building.
